Cramping Spells
"FOR MORE THAN A YEAR I had been in a very bad condition," says Mrs. R. E. Kimbrell, of Route 1, Dorchester, Texas. "I suffered with cramping spells which gave me bad pains in my back and sides. Sometimes I would have to catch at something, I would get so suddenly dizzy. . . . I had to quit doing my work. I tried many remedies, but none of them seemed to do me any good.
"In April I went up to Arkansas to visit my sister. . . . She said to me, 'Willie, if you are going to take anything, take Cardui. It will really help you.' I came home and told my doctor what she had said and he said I could not take any better tonic, so my husband immediately got me a bottle and I began it. . . . My case was a pretty tough one, I know, so I kept on faithfully. After the fourth bottle, I began to feel very much better, so much so that I was surprised at myself. I have taken six bottles now and I can truly say I feel like a different woman. . . . I feel fine and I owe it all to Cardui, which I took faithfully."

JESUS IN GETHSEMANE

LESSON TEXT—Mark 14:32-43.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Not what I will, but what thou wilt."—Mark 14:36.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus in the Garden.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Christ's Prayer in the Garden.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Christ's Prayer in the Garden.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Lessons From Gethsemane.

I. Jesus Christ Suffering (vv. 32-34.).

1. The Place (v. 32). The garden of Gethsemane—an enclosure containing olive and fig trees, beyond Kidron, about three-fourths of a mile from Jerusalem. The name means olive press. The name is significant of the occasion. Edersheim says, "It is an emblem of trial, distress, and agony." Gethsemane's garden was owned by some one of Jesus' friends. It afforded Him a suitable place to retire with His disciples in this trying hour.

2. His Companions (v. 33). He took with Him the eleven disciples that they might share so far as possible, this hour with Him. Being a real human being He craved human sympathy. He bade them watch with Him. While He knew that He must "tread the winepress alone," He had a keen appreciation of sympathy so far as those who loved Him could give it.

3. His Great Sorrow (v. 34). This is the same as the "cup" in verse 36. It was not primarily the prospect of physical suffering that was crushing Him; it was the suffering as a sin bearer—the sensations of His pure soul coming into contact with the awful sin and guilt of the world. In addition to this there was the judgment stroke from the holy God as it fell upon His Son instead of the sinner. God caused the iniquities of the world to strike upon Jesus (II Cor. 5:21; Isa. 53:6).

II. Jesus Christ Praying (vv. 35-42). Though He prized human sympathy in the hour of supreme need, His only recourse was prayer. The sympathy of our friends is helpful, but in the great crises of life we can only find help as we go to God in prayer.

1. The First Prayer (vv. 35-38).

(1) His posture (v. 35). He fell on his face prostrate on the ground. In the hour of our great need we naturally prostrate ourselves before God —a humbling posture. (2) His petition (v. 36). "Take away this cup from Me." By the cup is meant His death on the cross. No doubt it was most grievous to Him to face its shame, but He pressed on knowing that for this cause He had come into the world (John 12:27, 28, cf. Heb. 2:14). He prayed that the "hour might pass from Him"—the burden was so great that it seemed His life would be crushed out. His prayer was heard (Heb. 5:7). When God hears our prayers He grants the petition desired (1 John 5:14, 15). Angels ministered to Him, giving the necessary grace to endure to the end (Luke 22:43). (3) His resignation (v. 36). His will was in subjection to the Father. He knew that His death on the cross was the will of God the Father; for He was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (4) His disciples rebuked (v. 37). He singled out Peter, since he had been the most conspicuous in proclaiming his loyalty (John 13:37). Though he would go with Him to death he could not watch one hour. (5) Exhortation to the disciples (v. 38). "Watch and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." They had to be able to stand in the time of trial to be watching and praying. Jesus knew that although the disciples meant it well they would fail in the trial unless aided from above.

2. The Second Prayer (vv. 39, 40). He withdrew the second time from His disciples and uttered the same words in prayer. This was not vain repetition. It is proper to repeat our requests. He found the disciples asleep again. Their shame and confusion were more marked than at first.

3. The Third Prayer (vv. 41, 42). He uttered the same words in His third prayer (Matt. 26:44). He tells the disciples to sleep on and take their rest, as the hour had now come for His betrayal. There is such a thing as being asleep when wanted and awaking when it is too late.

Thank God

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best will breed in you temperance, self-control, diligence, strength of will, content and a hundred virtues which the idle will never know.—Charles Kingsley.

Doubts

Doubts about fundamentals exist in certain churches. Where there is a warm-hearted church, you do not hear of them.—C. H. Spurgeon.

War and Peace

Be at war with your vices, at peace with your neighbors, and let every year find you a better man or woman.

Power for Holy Service

The power for holy service is intercourse with God.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them more than usual. THE TIMES=VIRGINIAN

VOL. XXXIX—NO. 4 APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 5, 1925 ESTABLISHED 1892

VERA

March came in "like a lamb"—wonder how she is going out.

The farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather to prepare the soil for another crop. The roads are once more passable, but old brother ground-hog hasn't had his inning yet, and until his six weeks are up we needn't look for "sure enough" spring.

Messrs. Walker and Thomas Garrett gave a card party to their friends on the night of February 27th. All report a good time.

Quite a good deal of sickness still prevails in this "neck of the woods".

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beale were on the sick list last week; but are better at this writing.

Wm. Gunter, who was hurt in a fall is improving.

Mrs. Walker Carnefix does not improve we regret to relate.

Mrs. Leighton Hatcher is very much indisposed at this writing.

Mrs. Freeman Kyle who has been sick does not improve and has gone to Lynchburg for treatment.

Mrs. Leslie Coleman has been very much under the weather. Her many friends hope to hear of her recovery soon.

Lawrence Hatcher has been quite sick for several days, we hope it is nothing serious.

John Beale, who has been suffering with an infected arm for the past 6 months, is no better and fears are entertained that he may have to have his arm amputated.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reynolds have issued invitations to a birthday party to be given on Saturday the 7th., in honor of their sister, Miss Nelda Robertson.

FOREST VIEW

We seem to be having some winter weather after the beautiful spring days we have had.

Very near all the tobacco has been marketed from this vicinity, and the farmers are preparing for another crop of the weed, plowing and burning plant beds.

We are glad T. J. Nash is able to be going around after a severe spell of La Grippe—almost pneumonia.

The family of Edgar Hendrick are all much better.

The family of Z. M. Jones have been sick, but are out again.

We are glad Mrs. R. E. Marshall is able to creep around in her room again Mrs. T. H. Ford and daughter, Bernice, are better.

Mr. and Mrs H. Burnett spent Sunday in the home of B. N. Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs Coy Mann visited the latter's parents Saturday near Appomattox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ford were recent visitors in the home of R. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sims and family were also Sunday guests of R. W. Martin.

Mrs. Annie Martin Odor has been in a Lynchburg hospital a week, where she underwent an operation. Her brother, Curtis Maslin, spent several days last week with her—and is with her at this writing. She is reported as getting along very well. It is hoped she will be able to remove to Appomattox in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin were week-end visitors at the home of A. S. Woolridge recently.

W. T. Nash moved his saw mill over on Miss Jane Cheatham's place last week where Cecil and Loyd Nash will tear up the woods, sawing lumber this year. A house was built on the place and Loyd moved his family in last Friday.

PAMPLIN

A meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was held at Masonic hall Thursday evening. Much business was despatched with and interesting program rendered.

The ladies of the W. M. U. of Baptist church are observing March week of prayer for Home Missions, but only two services will be held.

Mrs. Howard Wilson entertained the Ernest Worker Society of Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon.

Col E. S. Ligon spent last week-end with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Ligon.

We are glad to note the improvement of Mrs. W. B Duling. Her daughters Misses Elizabeth and Mable have returned to their schools and son Marion to William & Mary College.

Miss Rosa Saunders has not returned to her school here on account of illness.

Miss Mary West Terry, who has been confined to her home on account of sickness, is able to return to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Harvey visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield of Phenix, last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Pallett spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Harvey. Mrs. Dillard Baker is also guest of her parents Mr and Mrs. Harvey.

The friends of Mr. M. C. Jones will be glad to know he is steadily improving. His physicians now speak most encouraging of his recovery.

Mrs. C. E. Massie and two sons, Bennie and Sterling, were guests of Mrs. H. T. Terry Thursday evening. Mrs. Massie is a capable and efficient teacher of our high school. We trust we shall be able to keep her.

We regret to relate the continued illness of Mrs. H. A Davis.

Rev. C. H. Jones filled the Baptist pulpit Sunday night for Rev Duling. His sermon was much enjoyed.

Misses Ella Neal and Mary Booker were visitors in our town Monday.

Mr. Locks Womack died at his home near Darlington Heights Sunday. He had been in ill health for some time, tho his death came as a shock to his family. The direct cause was heart failure. He was buried at his home Monday morning.

EVERGREEN

It seems as February is paying back some of the nice days she borrowed from March. We hope the interest will not be added.

Mrs. Andrew Harvey is on the sick list. She is being attended by Dr. Christian of Appomattox.

Mrs. Hicks, who has been seriously ill is very much improved at this writing.

Miss Olive Lewis was week-end guest of Miss Myrtle Evans.

Omer Burnett left today for Lynchburg, where he will seek employment.

Mrs. Z. E. Cheatham and little son James Elliott, who have been visiting her parents at Dillwyn have returned home.

Miss Louise Marks spent the week with her sister, Miss Elsie Marks.

STONEWALL

Miss Eleanor Bailey spent the week-end with home people in Waugh.

Miss Delia Scruggs of Staunton is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Scruggs.

Misses Ethel Alvis and Hazel Taylor were week end guests of Miss Annie Alvis in Farmville.

Eugene Drinkard who has been ill with pneumonia for some time was taken to hospital Saturday for an operation.

Mrs. T. A. Drinkard is very sick with la grip. Her daughter Miss Evie, who has been visiting in Lynchburg for several weeks, has returned home to be with her.

Misses Lina Carson and Elizabeth Kelly; Messrs. Carlton Bondurant and Jessie Harding motored to Pleasant Shade, Greensville county, and spent the week-end with Miss Kelly's people.

Mrs. William Scruggs and son Henry, motored to Lynchburg this week.

ROCKS NEWS

March is here with her wind. Welcome to the butter cups and hyacinths we are glad to see you again.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Roach visited their people here for the week end. Miss Zelia Inge accompanied them to their home in Roanoke.

Ray Baldwin and family are sick at this writing.

Mrs. O. C. Paulett is still confined to her bed. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dinkins spent Monday in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans visited Frank Ranson last week.

The pupils of Harmony school are enjoying their new library.

New Hope

We were so delighted to have Mr. and Mrs. Tucker in our community last week and hope to have them with us in the near future as our shepherd workers. Mr. Tucker preached a fine sermon at New Hope Sunday to a large audience.

The weather and roads are fine now and we hope to have every one in this community attend Sunday School every Sunday. Wanted your help. X.

This wonderfully serviceable ware, illustrated above, is well known to thousands of Majestic Range owners. It is the highly prized extra heavy old time Majestic set, same as furnished before war.

Economy in the Long Run
Any housewife ought to consider well the cooking and wearing qualities, the fuel economy and the appearance of the range she buys. Remember that it is a lasting purchase—you are buying for a long time. No purchase for the home is more important than the kitchen range. You cook on it three times a day, every day in the year. Your peace of mind and the health, energy and contentment of your whole household depend on the better cooking that a New Majestic Range will enable you to do every meal.
It is false economy to buy a cheap kitchen range that wears out quickly and often makes the best cooks fail. The only true economy is economy in the long run. Therein lies the economy of the Majestic. It cuts down fuel and repair bills and its long life of never-failing efficiency makes it cost less per year than any other range in the world.
Remember—Its One Week Only!
